

ENVIRONMENTAL LEARNING CENTERS OF CONNECTICUT'S VOLUNTEER OF THE MONTH

Andy Kapchensky

“As a sixth-grade teacher, my students enjoyed a two-day ecosystem field trip we took in the 1980’s at Indian Rock Nature Preserve. As a result, I became a member of Environmental Learning Centers of Connecticut (ELCCT). After retiring in 2002, I had plenty of time to volunteer and inquired about the opportunities with the then Director of Development. At a museum collaborative meeting, I said I was interested in anything I could do at Indian Rock. Since then, I have spent every Monday morning working in the office. I have enjoyed my time seeing the many changing and improvements at Indian Rock Nature Preserve and the Harry C. Barnes Memorial Nature Center, where I took my niece to a ‘Mommy and Me’ program in the 1990’s.”

Andy has been a tremendous help over the years confirming education programs, filing, and helping with summer camp. She is always willing to assist with special events, often at the admissions table, greeting visitors and taking payments. Thank You, Andy, for the many years of continued support of all things ELCCT!
